

St. Vrain Valley Schools invites you to

Little Voices, Big Music

a free, interactive musical experience designed for young children and their parents and/or caregivers, open to all St. Vrain families.

Monday, April 6

5:15 to 6:15 p.m.

St. Vrain Innovation Center

Little Voices, Big Music invites young children and their families to come sing and dance together in a joyful, hands-on musical experience. Through movement, singing, and playful activities, children will explore rhythm, melody, and creative expression in an age-appropriate and welcoming environment.

Guided by experienced performers from the Colorado Children's Chorale, families will engage in interactive music-making designed to celebrate early learning and create meaningful time together.

To pre-register, please scan the QR code.

Pre-registration is encouraged, but not required to attend.

This event is presented in partnership with St. Vrain's Innovation Center, Week of the Young Child, St. Vrain's Early Childhood Department, the Colorado Children's Chorale, and St. Vrain's Office of Fine Arts.
